

WALK FOR WENJACK

"I swore that I would do something the day he died. I would not have my brother's death swept under a rug. If Chanie's life can save other children then I've done my work."

- Pearl Achneepineskum

Secret Path Week: Oct. 17 - 22

A national movement to commemorate the legacies of Chanie Wenjack and Gord Downie, Secret Path Week marks the dates that Gord Downie (Oct. 17) and Chanie Wenjack (Oct. 22) joined the spirit world. DWF calls on Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples to answer Gord's call to "Do Something" by engaging in reconciliATIONS during this week.

Walk for Wenjack

Organized by a dedicated team of volunteers and champions, Walk for Wenjack is a grassroots event that started in 2016, providing Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples throughout Canada with the opportunity to participate in Secret Path Week and champion a reconciliACTION.

Together, let's walk the more than 600 kilometers that Chanie Wenjack needed to walk to get home.

For more information about Secret Path Week and Walk for Wenjack, visit DownieWenjack.ca.

ReconciliATIONS are meaningful actions that move reconciliation forward. They aim to bring Indigenous and non-Indigenous people together in the spirit of reconciliation to create awareness, share, and learn. ReconciliATIONS are the answer to Gord's call to "Do Something".
